1st Newsletter: Let's try ICT

Dear partners in Early Intervention, Special Education Child Day Cares and Social-Pediatric Centers,

The project coordinator Anadolu University (Prof. Dr. Ibrahim DIKEN) is pleased to inform you about the ongoing EU project Lets try ICT.

It is our goal within this Erasmus plus project to increase the usage of Information and communication Technology (ICT) in the field of Early Childhood Intervention.

This goal is reached by

- a) A critical assessment and professional exchange about available mobile APPS to enhance the development of children and support families
- b) Dissemination of existing online tools which facilitate transparency and full participation of all involved persons (parents, professionals)
- c) Toolkits how to use ICT in the field of Early Childhood Intervention (www.icf-training.eu , www.strong-kids.eu etc..)
